Consent to use and disclosure/Data Protection Acts, 1988 and 2003

I understand that under the Data Protection Acts, 1988 and 2003 (the "DPA"), my consent may be required for the credit union to process personal data which it may have in its possession concerning me (including disclosure to third parties). I note that this personal data may include sensitive personal data, such as data about my health, or my financial situation and standing within the meaning of the DPA, the processing of which requires my explicit consent. I also understand that under Section 71 of the Credit Union Act, 1997, the credit union, subject to exceptions listed in the Section, shall not disclose or permit to be disclosed, without my consent, any information that concerns an account or transaction of mine with the credit union.

For the purpose of assessing any loan applications which I may make to you and generally for administering and monitoring any accounts I have with the credit union, including any loan accounts I have from time to time with you:

I consent:

- (i) to you seeking information concerning applications for loans and my credit history from the date of my original consent from any credit union or from any credit reference bureau or agency, Experian, Irish Credit Bureau and for that purpose you may disclose any information in any membership joining form or loan application which I may make to you or which you may have concerning me to any such credit union or to any such credit reference bureau or agency;
- (ii) to any credit union or any credit reference bureau or agency, disclosing information to you concerning applications for loans and my credit history with any such credit union or any such credit reference bureau or agency;
